

Your Challenge

To implement security processes and procedures that promote the safest possible environment, minimize disruption and reduce potential loss of life and assets.

Our Solution

Command Security Corporation is the nation's most trusted and experienced provider of contract security services. Our executive team has a combined 200 years of expertise in high-level security positions for organizations including NASA, the US Army's Military Police, the Royal Air Force, the US Secret Service and numerous Fortune 1000 companies. We provide complete, customized and cost-effective solutions for businesses, events, institutions and organizations of all sizes.

Next Step

Every facility faces unique security challenges. Before initiating any project, we devote extensive time and resources toward understanding each client's specific security needs as well as evaluating existing security processes. The result: customized security solutions that are effective and adaptive.
